The Mechanical Contractors Association of Saskatchewan (MCAS) in partnership with the Construction Education Council (CEC) is pleased to present this exclusive seminar Advanced Supervisory Program: Turning Supervisors into Better Leaders.

Who Should Attend?

This course is recommended by the instructor for company owners, senior and middle management, project managers, and supervisors.

What Will You Learn?

This program is for the experienced supervisory who has experience or needs an added push. Every attendee will take an assessment to help them determine their management style which they can use to assist them in the improvement process. This is more than a seminar, it is a case study on how to improve all aspects of their job from leadership, communication, planning, safety, customer relations, coaching and self-realization. Topics include reasons supervisors are successful and how to learn from previous mistakes, understanding the supervisory growth stages and what needs to be done to reach the next level to avoid supervisory burn out, using flexible planning methods, increasing proactive job management, studying employee types, delegation skill development etc.

Your Instructor:

Kevin Dougherty: Kevin has been speaking to the construction industry for the last 27 Years. Kevin's work and education experience enables him to relate to today's problems and provides tangible solutions in an easy-to-listen style. He has taught thousands of people in various seminars. In addition to speaking and writing articles, Kevin has served as sales manager, project manager, operations manager, and corporate trainer for a multimillion-dollar mechanical contractor and specialty services contractor. Kevin has also been a frequent speaker for various SMACNA, CEC, MCAA, MSCA, NECA, SMWIA, U.A. PHCC, ISA SBA, and other trade associations. Kevin's humorous and energetic speaking style has made him a convention favorite. Kevin's ability to entertain audiences and hold their interest while getting his message across consistently makes him one of the industry's top speaking and training talents.
