

2019 ASHRAE Winter Conference & AHR Expo Travel Award

The award will be $1000 each for one student from Saskatchewan Polytechnic and one student from the University of Saskatchewan to attend the 2019 ASHRAE Winter Conference & AHR Expo in Atlanta, January 12-16, 2019.

How you can win: Write a short two-page maximum essay on why you are interested in the HVAC industry and why energy efficiency is important for the future.

Deadline: Please submit to studentactivities@ashraesaskatoon.ca by November 1st 2018.

Award Details: This scholarship will pay for travel, accommodations and conference registration to attend the 2019 ASHRAE Annual Conference and to a maximum of $1,000. Estimated conference costs range from $1,000 to $2,500 depending on choice of flights and accommodation. Recipients will be responsible for all costs above the award amount. Additionally, recipients will be responsible for all meals and all other incidental costs. The Technical Program along with Committee meetings, Bookstore, and Speakers Lounge will be held at the Omni CNN Center and the Georgia World Congress Center. More information about the conference is available on the ASHRAE website (<https://www.ashrae.org/conferences/winter-conference>).

Questions can be sent to studentactivities@ashraesaskatoon.ca.